

Suicide Support and Information

Informing and Supporting People Affected by Suicide in Ireland

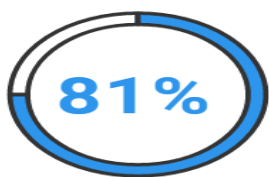

The new Suicide Support and Information website provides clear and understandable information on bereavement and on responding to people at risk of suicide. Our information targets:

- Bereaved Family Members
- The Public
- General Practitioners
- Mental Health Professionals

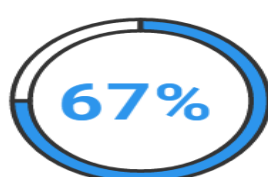

Visit and share at: www.suicidesupportandinformation.ie

Previous research found:

Among people who died by suicide

Had contact with their GP or mental health service prior to death

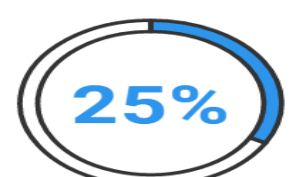

Had contact with their GP 4 times or more in the year prior to death

Among people bereaved by suicide

Reported depression and anxiety

Reported suicidal thoughts