About the National Suicide Research Foundation

The National Suicide Research Foundation (NSRF) is a leading centre for excellence in the area of suicide prevention. Founded in 1994, the NSRF produces research and evidence for policy development and intervention in the prevention of self-harm, suicide and related mental health and social problems.

The NSRF is a charitable company with a registered office at 4.28 Western Gateway Building, University College Cork. The company's registered number is 224676. The Registered Charity Number (RCN) of the charity is 20030889. The charity has been granted charitable tax status under sections 207 and 208 of the Taxes Consolidation Act 1997, Charity number CHY 11351 and is registered with the Charities Regulatory Authority.

The NSRF has been designated as a WHO Collaborating Centre in Surveillance and Research in Suicide Prevention and also has a formal Memorandum of Collaboration with University College Cork. The NSRF employs approximately 50 staff and has an annual turnover of approximately €2m. More information about the organisation can be found here: www.nsrf.ie.

This is an exciting opportunity to support the work of the NSRF as it implements its current strategic plan and to work with a diverse and multidisciplinary team to reduce the incidence of suicide and self-harm in Ireland and globally, through impactful research.
